Present: Cllrs. Else, Hooker, Ludlam, Robinson, Taaffe-Finn and Wiser (Chair)
In Attendance: 4 Parishioners, County Cllr Jackson and L McCormick Clerk.

AGENDA

1206. PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

County Cllr Jackson spoke of the work to be done and many things to resolve in Derbyshire and he had in mind new initiatives which will be launched, he also spoke of his support for the Lea School planning application. Cllr Jackson also spoke of the Right of Way in Lea and the legal aspect takes time but he is trying to make changes and get the time delay removed. Cllr Hooker spoke to Cllr Jackson regarding the sewage plant and the apparent overloading of the plant creating very offensive smells, Cllr Jackson suggested to ring call Derbyshire and an officer could come out when this offensive smell is active. Parishioners spoke of highways problem areas, The Hollins obstruction by parked vehicles creating danger when cars pull out of the Hollins. Church Street on to Lea Main Road the overgrowth creates an impossible visual line and this needs attention and Leashaw Holloway the drains create awful bumps and could ruin a cars suspension, the Clerk would email Cllr Jackson the problems and Donna Shaw re parked vehicles. The Clerk reported the following Diary dates: Arkwright Society Cromford Station Open Day July 4th 2009 11:00 till 16:00 - Alfreton Rural Safer Neighbourhood Team panel meeting Tuesday July 14th 2009 at 18:00 at the Chapel Rooms Holloway
